Date : 09/10/2006

ORAL JUDGMENT

1. Though this petition is placed before this Court pursuant to a note submitted by the Additional Registrar for disbursement of remuneration from out of an amount of Rs.3,000/- deposited with the Registry by the petitioner pursuant to order dated 24-3-2006, learned advocates appearing for both sides submitted that while taking up the question of passing appropriate order in this regard, entire petition can be finally disposed of in view of certain subsequent developments. It is jointly stated that pursuant to certain interim directions issued by this Court in its order dated 24-3-2006, meeting of the General Body of the petitioner no.1-society had taken place on 4-5-2006. There have been no complaints about any untroverd incident in the said meeting and that therefore, main cause of the petition itself does not survive. In view of this development at the suggestion of learned advocates appearing for the parties, this petition is disposed of as having become infructuous.

2. With respect to the amount of Rs. 3,000/- deposited by the petitioners pursuant to order dated 24-3-2006 passed by this Court, it is directed that the said amount shall be disbursed in favour of Additional Registrar(Judicial) who had carried out the task of supervising the proceedings of meeting dated 4-5-2006 and had submitted his report to the Court. Amount may be paid over to him through Account Payee Cheque by the Registry.

3. With these observations and directions, the petition is disposed of. Rule is discharge with no order as to costs.
